

Korean Pavilion

KOREAN PAVILION

The six-story structure was created to house the “Korean Experience” within the 2010 World Exposition. The interior features the Korean alphabet in a colorful collage of digitally printed metal panels. A unique tension facade support system comprised of a thin net of vertical and horizontal rods reduce visual massing.

- ARCHITECT: Mass Studies (Minsuk Cho)
CLIENT: Shanghai World Expo 2010
LOCATION: Shanghai, China
MATERIALS: Tactile Formed Aluminum™
PRODUCTS: Tactile Interior Cladding™

Phone: +1.888.219.2126

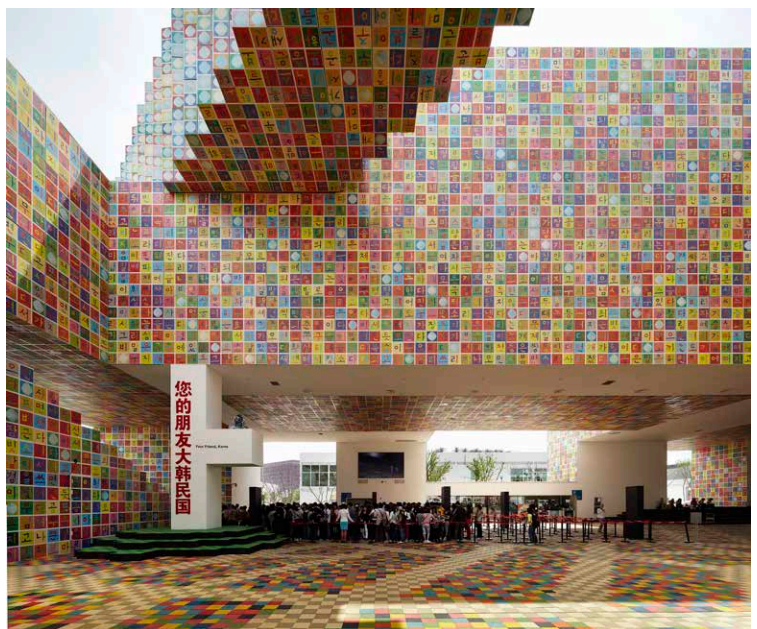

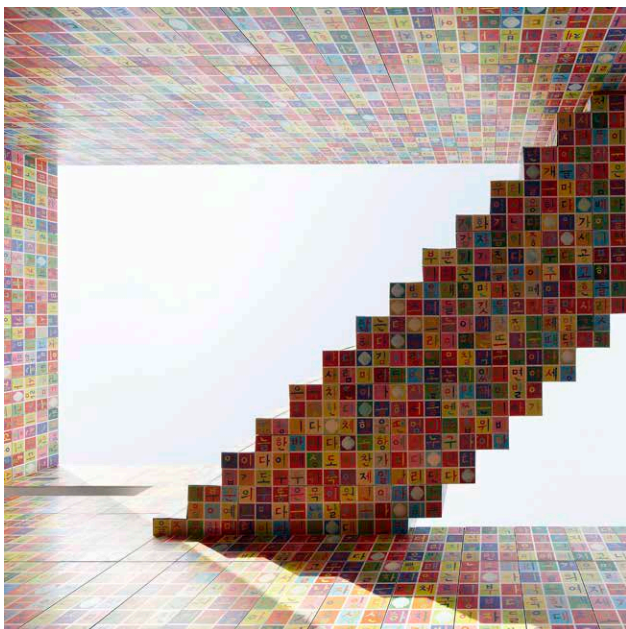

Email: info@architecturalmaterials.com

Copyright Architectural Materials. All rights reserved.

Contact a product manager for more information.

Version 10.20.1000.30 | TIC-FA-PR1

Korean Pavilion

Phone: +1.888.219.2126

Email: info@architecturalmaterials.com

Copyright Architectural Materials. All rights reserved.

Contact a product manager for more information.

Version 10.20.1000.30 | TIC-FA-PR2